General Comment

Re: RIN 1210-AB32

Sir or Madam:

I am forwarding this comment to express my opposition to the above regulatory proposal.

My concern stems from the obstructive effect this regulation will have on my ability to manage my own financial affairs.

I have been trading options for over a decade in online brokerage accounts and I understand quite well the concept of conflict of interest. I use publicly available information on the markets to select my investments and I have used option strategies to protect my portfolio. This regulation will effectively reduce my ability to limit risk in my IRA and SEP. I ask you to please respect my view and suspend the implementation of this regulation.
Respectfully, William J Marion
